

Title 1 Policies

The 2001 No Child Left Behind Act states that parents have the right to request and receive timely information on the professional qualifications of your child's classroom teacher(s) and paraprofessional(s).

Homer Plessy Community School does not reduce allocations to schools who receive Title I funding.

For further information on Homer Plessy Community School title 1 funding procedures please contact the office.